Part One: Vietnam Veterans Against the War

Part Two: National Coordinating Committee to End the War in Vietnam

Part Three: Student Mobilization Committee to End the War in Vietnam

The FBI maintained extensive surveillance on college and university campuses with informants reporting on the slightest activity by antiwar groups and individuals. Detailed information on the rise and eventual split of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) and documentation on the Kent State shootings and subsequent campus strikes are notable topics covered in this collection.

This collection includes a wide range of position papers written by antiwar movement activists starting in 1964. Open letters to the broad Antiwar Movement include topics such as:

- sexism and racism in the movement
- the struggle for amnesty
- the controversy surrounding anti-imperialism
- the debate on pacifism as a strategic tactic

This publication includes a number of legal cases revolving around constitutional rights, wiretapping and civil rights and is useful for scholars of history, political science and sociology.
