The Cherokee Rose

In her first novel, U-M professor Tiya Miles illuminates the complex history of Native American slaveholding through the story of a trio of contemporary women of color.

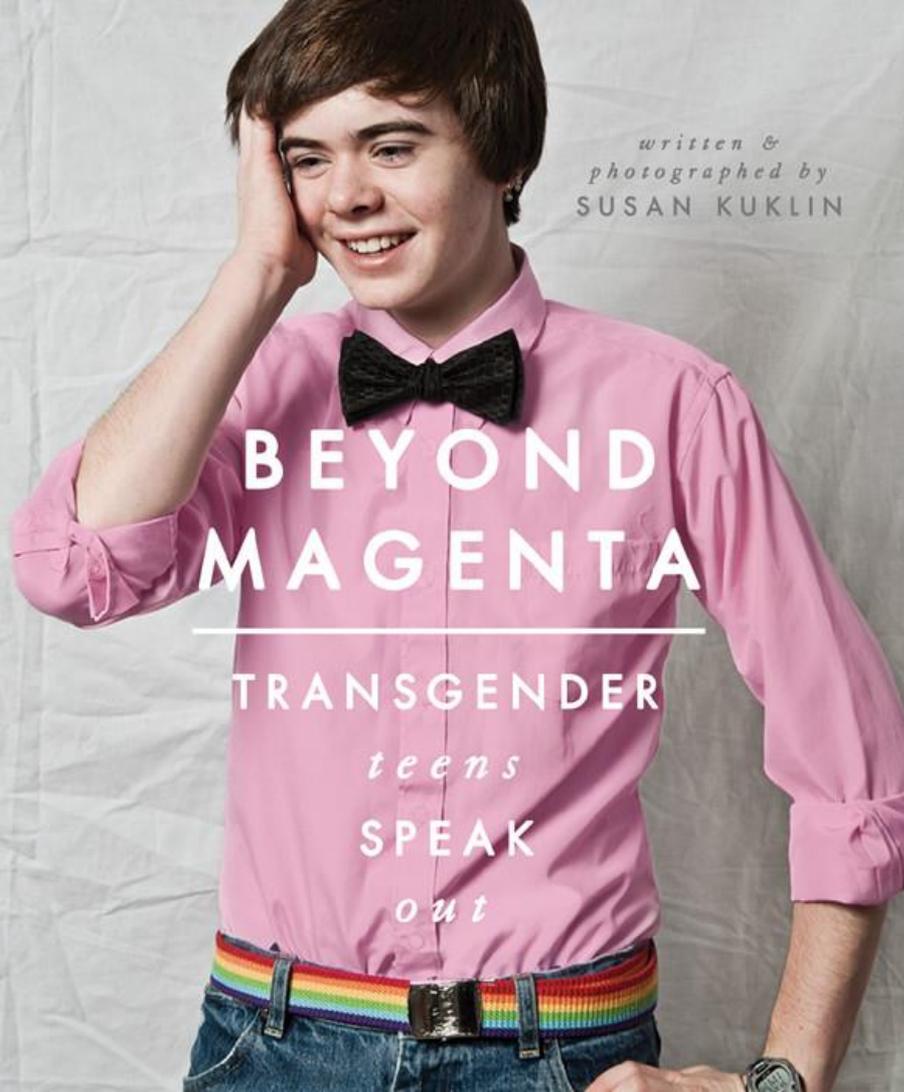

The Lambda Literary Awards have deemed her book “a great lesbian novel,” and it is available from the Shapiro Library and the Graduate Library.

WHAM! & ACT UP demonstration

March 8, 1990

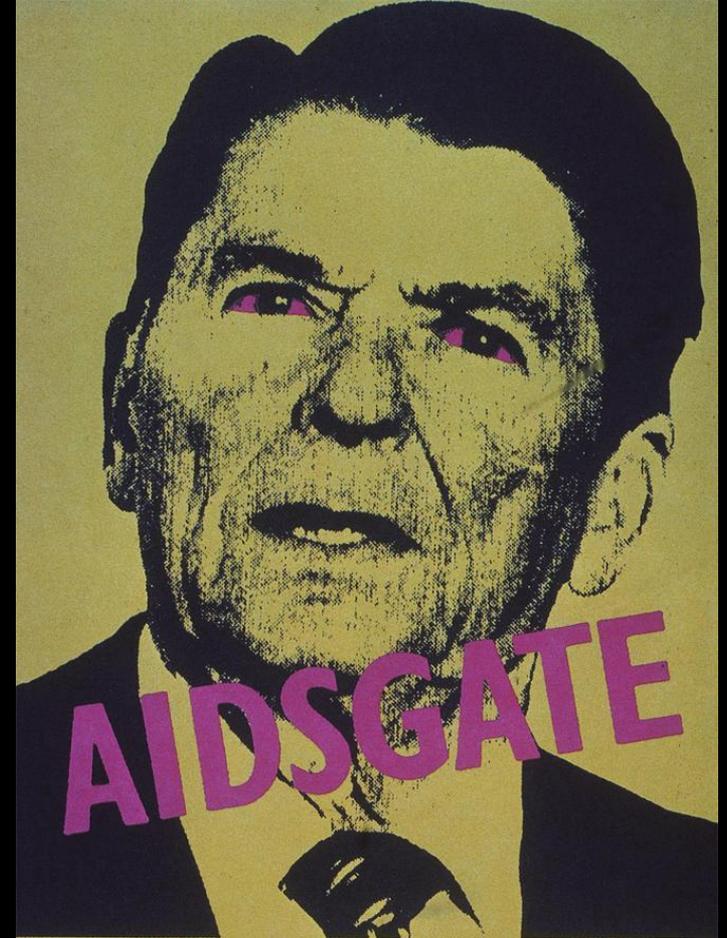

Women's Health Action & Mobilization (WHAM!) and the AIDS Coalition to Unleash Power (ACT UP) organized a number of demonstrations to advocate for better access to medical treatment for HIV and AIDS infected individuals.

Silence=Death Project poster

1987

President Ronald Reagan did not publicly acknowledge the AIDS crisis until May 31, 1987. By then, nearly 40,000 Americans had been diagnosed with the disease, and over 20,000 had died.

The Silence=Death Project created and distributed posters, buttons, and other materials to bring attention to AIDS and the lives of people affected by the disease.

This Political Scandal Must Be Investigated!

54% of people with AIDS in NYC are Black or Hispanic... AIDS is the No. 1 killer of women between the ages of 24 and 29 in NYC...

By 1991, more people will have died of AIDS than in the entire Vietnam War... What is Reagan's real policy on AIDS?

Genocide of all Non-whites, Non-males, and Non-heterosexuals!...

Lawrence v. Texas

539 U.S. 558 (2003)

“The State cannot demean their existence or control their destiny by making their private sexual conduct a crime.”

— from the majority opinion written by
Justice Anthony Kennedy

Lawrence v. Texas invalidated sodomy laws throughout the US, which criminalized a variety of sex acts between consenting adults.

Obergefell v. Hodges

“As some of the petitioners in these cases demonstrate, marriage embodies a love that may endure even past death. It would misunderstand these men and women to say they disrespect the idea of marriage. Their plea is that they do respect it, respect it so deeply that they seek to find its fulfillment for themselves. Their hope is not to be condemned to live in loneliness, excluded from one of civilization's oldest institutions. They ask for equal dignity in the eyes of the law. The Constitution grants them that right.”

Justice Anthony Kennedy

LGBTQ Americans are disproportionately impacted by income inequality.

For example, gay men earn 32% less than similarly qualified heterosexual men.

The Michigan Legislature is currently considering Senate Bill 993, which would forbid school districts from allowing trans students to use bathrooms or locker rooms that correspond with their gender identity.

This proposed legislation conflicts with federal guidelines recently released by the Department of Education.

LGBTQ youth are disproportionately affected by homelessness.

Studies suggest 20-40% of homeless youth identify as lesbian, gay, bisexual, or transgender.

Elderly LGBTQ people face challenges in accessing quality healthcare and social services due to discrimination and isolation.
